2. Nomination Committee

The Nomination Committee has been appointed by National President Senator Rafael Wong to assess the qualifications and eligibility of the candidates and present a report to the General Assembly of the 60th National Convention. Apart from me serving as the Chairman, the Nomination Committee includes five other members:

2002 National President Senator Tony Chan

2006 National President Senator Dr James Tsui, MH

2010 National President Senator Gene Tang

2016 National President Senator Brian Kwan

2017 National President Senator Teresa Poon

3. Eligibility and Qualification of Candidates

The procedure for electing 2026 Elective National Officers is conducted in accordance with the Articles of Association and By-laws of Junior Chamber International Hong Kong, China. All candidates are required to observe and comply with these clauses.

The qualifications for candidates of the Elective & Appointed National Officers are contained in JCIHK By-law 12-4. Specific Requirements for NP, NEVPs, NVPs, NGLC, NSG, NHT and NDs are contained in By-laws 12-9-3, 12-11-2, 12-12-2, 12-10-2, 12-13-2, 12-14-2 and 12-15-2 respectively.

Five of the candidates are not eligible for the offices they are standing for election.

The following Candidates fail to meet a specific requirement under By-law 12-12-2 (C), i.e. the candidate shall be a current member of the National Board of Directors or shall have been a member of the National Board of Directors for at least one year.

National Vice President Candidates:

- Sum, Dick Wah (JCI Victoria)
- Wong, Pui Yan (JCI Sha Tin)
- Fong, Jenny Yue Jen (JCI Peninsula)
- Kwok, Chak Fung (JCI North District)
- Wong, Lai Hing (JCI Kowloon)

Notwithstanding their failure to meet the specific requirements or qualifications, the above five candidates may seek for election or appointment by way of a waiver in accordance with By-law 12-4-9. The Nomination Committee recommends such waiver be granted subject to the approval of the General Assembly by a two-third (2/3 majority) of the votes.

4. Candidates Training School

Under By-law 12-4-5, all elective candidates attended the Candidates Training School with the following details:

Date:	14th August 2025 (Thursday)	19th September 2025 (Friday)
Time:	19:30 – 21:30	19:30 – 21:30
Venue:	Level 1, Everglory Centre, 1B Kimberley Street, Tsim Sha Tsui	Chamber Office, Junior Chamber International Hong Kong, China (21/F, Seaview Commercial Building, 21-24 Connaught Road West, Hong Kong)

5. Interview by the Nomination Committee

Interview for all candidates for Elective National Officers, as per Constitutional requirement (By-law 12-4-7), was conducted on 6th September 2025 (Saturday), at the Chamber Office with the Nomination Committee assessing the ability of each candidate in the following areas:

1. Junior Chamber affairs at Local, National & International levels
2. Parliamentary procedures
3. Articles of Association and By-laws of Junior Chamber International Hong Kong, China
4. Duties of the respective offices and problem-solving skills
5. Community Affairs

The performance of individual candidates was graded in accordance with the following scale:

- i. Excellent
- ii. Very Good
- iii. Good
- iv. Fair
- v. Poor
- vi. Unsatisfactory

Appendix 1 shows each candidate's interview results in their respective areas. It was also posted on JCI Hong Kong, China Web Site (www.jcihk.org) for general members' reference on or before 27th September 2025.

The Nomination Committee has observed that the candidates exhibit a commendable degree of confidence and enthusiasm—qualities pivotal to inspiring peer leadership. Their robust problem-solving abilities stand out, clearly signaling great potential to drive impact for JCI Hong Kong, China. To further unleash their leadership potential, the Committee highlights opportunities to deepen awareness of emerging global and local youth-centric issues, as well as broaden their understanding of JCI's evolving international initiatives and the nuances of JCIHK's Articles of Association and By-laws. Strengthening these areas, paired with refining their grasp of parliamentary procedures, will enable them to serve as even more effective, trusted role models for Local Organizations.

As management teams worldwide navigate dynamic challenges—ranging from evolving youth engagement trends to innovative community impact frameworks—adaptability and forward-thinking innovation have grown indispensable. The Nomination Committee encourages the candidates to embrace continuous learning and development; these practices will serve as the foundation for their growth as informed, agile leaders. We are eager to witness their journey ahead and are confident that with determination and dedication, they will build a capable, inspiring team to guide JCI Hong Kong, China toward impactful success in 2026!

6. Closure of Nomination

In accordance with By-law 12-6-3, all nominations were closed forty-five (45) days before the commencement of the National Convention.

7. Conclusion

Taking this opportunity, I would like to extend my heartfelt appreciation to Nomination Committee Members, 2002 NP Senator Tony Chan; 2006 NP Senator Dr. James TSUI, MH; 2010 NP Senator Gene Tang; 2016 NP Senator Brian Kwan; and 2017 NP Senator Teresa Poon, for their time, effort and contribution. I would also like to thank the National Secretariat and Administrative Team, Chamber Office Staffs and Chamber Executive Senator Phyllis Chan for their support.

My sincere appreciation goes to all candidates for their courage and devotion in demonstrating themselves as passionate young leaders who are committed to serve JCI Hong Kong, China in 2026 as well as their cooperation during the nomination process. I believe under the leadership of National President Candidate Senator Daryl Lin, JCI Hong Kong and her LOMs will have another fruitful year.

Last but not least, I wish to express my sincere thanks to the National Convention Director Austin Cheung and the Organizing Committee and Advisors of 60th National Convention for the assistance they have rendered to the Nomination Committee.

I wish the candidates every success in the election.

Yours in JC Spirit,
