

Message from National President Junior Chamber International Hong Kong

Today, we celebrate our inauguration as JCI Hong Kong 2009 Officers !

First and foremost, on behalf of Junior Chamber International Hong Kong, I would like to thank Mr. Wang Zhi Min, Deputy Director of the Liaison Office of the Central People's Government in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, and Mr. Jun Sup Shin, President of the Junior Chamber International, for attending the Inauguration Ceremony of the JCI Hong Kong and her nineteen local chapters. We are truly honored by your presence that signifies your recognition and support to the JCI Hong Kong. We modestly seek for your valuable advices and continuous guidance in 2009.

Over the past 58 years, JCI Hong Kong has established solid foundation and set high standard as an outstanding entity of the JCI. While I take pride for being the president of this entity, let me assure you that we will not relax our desire to pursue higher level of standing and reputation in our society.

Like what we have been doing for nearly 6 decades, JCI Hong Kong will carry on with the campaign in promoting Active Citizenship for positive changes in the community. Activity Citizenship concerns everyone. We all have the rights and responsibilities to the society and the environment, and we have shared interests in local, national and global affairs. We are new generation of young people who want to make more than mere economic contributions to the world. We want our rights and responsibilities exercised in proper and balanced ways, and our values expressed in virtuous and constructive manner. Therefore, we are having "JC Members Global Leaders" being the presidential theme for 2009.

Hong Kong Special Administrative Region had been established for more than a decade now. In this decade, our country, China, had elevated her involvement in global matters significantly, not only in term of economic globalization, but also in means of appreciable contribution to the United Nation Millennium Development Goals and Global Compacts. We strongly believe that young people in Hong Kong, especially JC members, would contribute our best to the local, national as well as global community by taking the lead to be Active Citizens.

Last but not the least, I would like to thank each and every one of you tonight for your support to our beloved organization, JCI Hong Kong, and I wish you every success in the year 2009.

Ken Wong
